

MANAGED SERVICES

ABOUT US ▼

Percento Technologies provides ongoing IT Management and full optimization of equipment keeping your organization operating efficiently and poised for growth in the coming years. Across all industries, IT infrastructures are utilized to increase productivity, manage workflow, communicate both internally and with clients worldwide – 24/7/365 and accessible from anywhere in the world. Percento personalizes the IT experience for your organization with solutions custom tailored for the issues your business faces. Percento seeks to maximize your realized return on investment, while minimizing the impact to your business. Additionally, Percento Technologies is able to provide a form of complete care that is often overlooked.

Worried about your IT going down?

A minor defect within IT section of your business can bring a halt to your business. Now you do not have to wait for something to go wrong and then you contact a provider. We do not let anything happen to your IT infrastructure in the very first place. With efficient managed IT services we offer our clients an access to management expertise and effective tools that allow them deliver efficiently and earn credibility. We are a customer centric IT service provider where we take complete responsibility of our clients IT challenges and are always prepared to offer on-site IT solutions that can take the business to a new level.

SERVICE OFFERINGS ▼

Percento Technologies' Managed IT service is a pioneering approach where we assist businesses by proactively monitoring IT issues. We resolve all the issues related to client's server, network, software, hardware and IT support. Our custom monitoring tools continuously monitors client's IT network so that immediate and automated notification can be generated whenever a problem occurs. Our IT solution enables businesses to concentrate on their competencies through enhanced productivity with their improved IT infrastructure. We give them the power to utilize their resources to the max with our superior IT capabilities. Percento has all the cutting edge tools and the expertise that manages your IT department professionally and our services are available at very competitive price.